CareWell Organizes Eye Camp at Vocational Education Center

Patna; September 10, 2010: A free Eye Screening Camp was held at “Saheli,” a vocational center sponsored and run by the Rotary Club, Patna, in collaboration with Carewell Charitable Society. ‘Saheli’ vocation center provides vocation education to children from Patna and surrounding areas; many of whom have limited financial resources.

The Eye Camp was conducted by eye specialist, Dr. Pankaj Kumar, and Dr. Upendra Kumar, with their teams. The program was inaugurated by Mr. Manoj Kumar, President of the Rotary Club, Patna in the presence of other Rotarians like Mr. Ran Vijay Prasad, Director of Mass Education (retd.); Government of Bihar, Mr. Sanat Prasad, Secretary Rotary Club, Patna, parents and other guests.

While inaugurating, Mr. Kumar, noted his great appreciation for the works of Carewell Charitable Society’s and assured all help in such programs. At the outset, Dr. Meena Prasad, detailed the mission and objectives of Carewell Charitable Society and appealed to people to join them in helping the society in such work in caring for others less fortunate. Dr. Meena Prasad also thanked Mr. Mithesh of Saheli Center for the success of this camp.

As part of the camp, 90 female students had eye exams and 27 students found to be in need for eye glasses. These students will be provided free eye glasses by CareWell Charitable Society.
