CareWell to organize a series of health camps in local schools to screen for vision and hearing problems in school children with limited or no access to medical care and provide free treatment to those children in need

Phoenix, USA & Patna, India; January 24, 2008: A Three Day Eye & Ear Screening Test of School Children will be organized at the Gardanibagh Girls High School, Patna, India from January 30, 2008 to February 2, 2008. The screening will cover 1,000 school children and free treatment will be provided to children identified with vision and hearing problems. This program is sponsored by The Reger Fund of the U.S.A. The camp will be inaugurated jointly by Dr. A. K. Singh, Director of the Indira Gandhi Institute of Medical Science, Patna, and Dr. Narendra Prasad, an eminent Surgeon, also of Patna. The President of the CareWell Charitable Society, Dr. Meena Prasad will chair the function. Dr. Prasad explained the three aspects of this program: free screening of ear & eye, free treatment for the poor and training of school teachers for the screening at Indira Gandhi Institute of Medical Sciences, Patna and the J. M. Institute of Speech and Hearing, Patna. Dr. Pankaj Sinha and Dr. Upendra Kumar, Eye Specialists and four ENT specialists from J.M Institute of Speech and Hearing; Mr. P. L. Roy, Mr. D. Kushwaha, Mr. Madhu Ranjan and Ms. Subharta, will conduct the free vision and hearing screening tests for 1000 school children. Dr. Prasad said "Carewell Charitable Society is grateful for the willing collaboration of Gardanibagh Girls High School's administrative and teaching staff and is greatly thankful to the Doctors and volunteers for their efforts and time".
